REMAIN OPERATIONAL THROUGH COVID-19* AND BEYOND

We're here to support your needs through the pandemic.

*Customer will be required to acknowledge if buildings will be used for pathogen testing, examination, treatment, or quarantine related to COVID19 and be subject to WillScot's COVID19 protocol.

MAKE IT SAFE WITH MOBILE SPACE.

Temporary space is an immediate solution to keeping your business up and running, and keeping your workers, visitors and customers safe. Essential businesses need to stay open, which means they need to adapt. Portable modular buildings are the ideal way to keep operating while following government mandates for safety, protection and social distancing.

ADD A SAFETY CHECKPOINT

Screening centers provide a layer of protection.

Use modular space as an isolated facility to screen employees and visitors before they enter your main workplace.

WHEN FOOTPRINT IS TIGHT, GO MULTI-STORY

Change the way you think about mobile offices.

Movable panels allow limitless configurations and floor plans. You can also combine units to expand out or stack up to three stories, giving you the ability to work with any site challenges and footprint constraints.

Create multiple work areas in one space

Partition panels create office layouts and open common areas. Use them for a break, training or meeting room and complete with our café package. In all, we offer 12 standard partition layouts, all fully furnished and ready to work.

With the ability to expand upward (up to three stories) and outward (infinitely), our Flex is truly “flexing” the boundaries of temporary space.

THE FORMULA FOR FAST RESPONSE

While the global pandemic draws schools and businesses to a close, critical services like healthcare and food services are working overtime to meet the demand. Whether isolated testing centers or temporary supply storage, the growing need is outpacing most communities' ability to respond.

Experts

We have the largest team of modular experts standing by at our branches throughout North America. Our experts handle every detail from sourcing a purpose-fit space, to delivery, to return and everything in between.

Assets

We have the largest fleet of modular buildings with more than 160,000 units across North America. With limitless configurations, we can meet any space need from a single building to multistory, modular complexes. We also provide The Essentials — everything you need to complete your workspace from stairs and security to furnishings, fixtures, technology, insurance and much more.

Solutions

WillScot is your single, reliable source for an immediately functional temporary space, which removes considerable hassles and saves you much needed time and money. Our modular units can be delivered and ready to work in days, not weeks so you can focus on recovery efforts.
